

Layaway Agreement

Dressed to a T believes every customer deserves a beautiful gown for their special day. We want to help not only find you the perfect dress but be able to fit it into your budget. That is why we offer layaway.

- * Layaway deposit of 30% (not including tax) is required
- * After the initial payment, we require payment in full within 30 days. Your 30 days ends at the close of business on _____ (initials)
- * Cancellation of a layaway by a customer for ANY reason forfeits all payments made and merchandise will return to the sales floor.
- * Items on layaway must not be taken out of the store for any reason without payment in full.
- * There are no hidden fees or penalties and there is no credit application process.
- * If you are unable to fulfill your obligation, then you simply lose your deposit, any payments made and your right to the merchandise. We do not give refunds or store credit in this event.
- * If you are planning to use our in-house alterations services, the outstanding balance on your layaway items MUST be paid in full before any work can begin on your items. You may, however, schedule a consultation/fitting appointment with one of our seamstresses during the layaway period.
- * By signing this agreement, you agree to all of the above terms - without exception.

Signature

Date